

Who Am I Brainstorm Organizer

List three or four significant events that have happened in your life and pick the one you would like to write about the most.

Where did the event you chose occur?

What happened and who were you with?

How did it end?

Who Am I Paragraph Organizer

1st Paragraph - Introduction: The introduction should be interesting and catch the readers eye, so think of something that would make a good introductory or topic sentence. Example: This was one experience I will never forget. It all started when... Be sure to tell where it happened.

2nd Paragraph – Tell what happened first and with whom.

3rd Paragraph – What happened next and why?

4th Paragraph – What were the consequences of the event?

5th Paragraph – Conclusion: Give the story an ending that ties the story together. Example: I hope that never happens to me again because... or That was the most fun I have ever had because...
